OUR NORMS IN ACTION

How We Learn Every Day

RESPECTFUL

- Listen to different viewpoints and interpretations.
- Value diverse people, cultures and experiences from the past.
- Discuss the past with maturity and respect.

RESPONSIVE

- Be ready to ask and answer challenging questions.
- Act on feedback to improve our thinking.
- Use new evidence to adapt and develop our ideas.

RESOLUTE

- Persevere with complex sources and big questions.
- Learn from mistakes and keep improving.
- Stay curious and keep seeking the truth.

OUR VALUES IN ACTION

In our History lessons, we demonstrate the six Nuneaton Academy Values through our curiosity, critical thinking and approach to learning.

AMBITION

- Aim high in our historical understanding.
- Take on challenging enquiries and topics.
- See how the past can inspire a better future.

CONFIDENCE

- Share and justify our ideas with evidence.
- Speak in discussions and debates.
- Build confidence in analysing different sources.

CREATIVITY

- Explore the past through different sources (e.g. artefacts, images, film and maps).
- Present our ideas in imaginative and engaging ways.

RESPECT

- Value different perspectives on historical events.
- Respect the people and societies we study.
- Use evidence carefully and honestly.

ENTHUSIASM

- Show curiosity about people, events and change.
- Get involved in class discussions and activities.
- Share our interest in the past with others.

DETERMINATION

- Keep going when sources are challenging.
- Learn from feedback and try again.
- Strive to deepen our understanding of cause, change and consequence.
